

BANARAS HINDU UNIVERSITY

B.A. / B.Sc. / B.Com. (Hons.) — Semester IV Mid Term Examination, 2025-26 (NEP)

Ability Enhancement Course (AEC)*Paper Code: ENGAE-41 : Academic Writing (Mid Term)

Time: 1 Hour

Maximum Marks: 30

*Instructions: Answer all 30 questions. Each question carries equal marks (1 mark each).Question 1. What is the main purpose of a Proposal? [1]

- (A) To tell a story
- (B) To describe a past event
- (C) To report old research
- (D) To convince someone to accept a plan

Question 2. What is the main purpose of a review article? [1]

- (A) To present new lab research
- (B) To evaluate a published work
- (C) To write personal experience
- (D) To give only data

Question 3. A good thesis statement should: [1]

- (A) Be confusing
- (B) Clearly state the main argument
- (C) Be written only at the end
- (D) Include every detail

Question 4. Which source is most reliable for academic research? [1]

- (A) A random blog
- (B) A social media post
- (C) A long article online
- (D) A peer-reviewed journal article

Question 5. Extra materials that do not fit in the main text are placed in: [1]

- (A) Appendices
- (B) Title page

(C) Introduction

(D) Conclusion

Question 6. Why is audience analysis important before writing a proposal? [1]

(A) To choose font style

(B) To decide page number

(C) To know who will read it and what they need

(D) To make it colorful

Question 7. Which is NOT a good quality of technical writing? [1]

(A) Clear language

(B) Correct technical terms

(C) Proper headings

(D) Casual conversational style

Question 8. Which part of a proposal best explains how to solve the problem? [1]

(A) Problem statement

(B) Proposed solution/recommendation

(C) Appendix

(D) Title

Question 9. A humanities essay mainly uses: [1]

(A) Numbers and graphs

(B) Ideas, interpretation and arguments

(C) Only experiments

(D) Fixed scientific format

Question 10. The best way to avoid plagiarism is to: [1]

(A) Read the source well and write in your own words

(B) Replace words with synonyms only

(C) Copy everything

(D) Avoid all sources

Question 11. Which of these is NOT a citation style? [1]

(A) APA

- (B) MLA
- (C) Latin
- (D) Chicago

Question 12. A good abstract should: [1]

- (A) Be informal
- (B) Correctly summarize the whole paper
- (C) Include only questions
- (D) Be very long

Question 13. Which is NOT an important pre-writing question? [1]

- (A) Which font should be used?
- (B) Who is the audience?
- (C) Why is it written?
- (D) How much to include?

Question 14. A technical article should: [1]

- (A) Be emotional
- (B) Be only personal opinion
- (C) Be for entertainment
- (D) Present facts, analysis and conclusions

Question 15. Why is an outline useful? [1]

- (A) No need to revise later
- (B) It gives a clear plan of the writing
- (C) It guarantees success
- (D) It adds references

Question 16. Why are Journal articles usually valued more than conference papers? [1]

- (A) They are longer
- (B) They go through stronger peer review
- (C) They use easy words
- (D) They are always online

Question 17. A good academic review should: [1]

- (A) Be very long
- (B) Ignore weaknesses
- (C) Give balanced criticism
- (D) Always praise the work

Question 18. What should be included in an abstract? [1]

- (A) Problem, method, findings and conclusion
- (B) Full tables
- (C) All references
- (D) Full literature review

Question 19. A proposal may be rejected if: [1]

- (A) It has many sections
- (B) The reason for the study is weak
- (C) It is formal
- (D) It is individual work

Question 20. Zotero is useful because it: [1]

- (A) Gives research topics
- (B) Writes the paper
- (C) Checks arguments
- (D) Organizes and formats references

Question 21. Google Docs helps group writing because: [1]

- (A) Many people can write together at the same time
- (B) It removes discussion
- (C) It writes automatically
- (D) It checks every citation

Question 22. A journal style guide gives rules about: [1]

- (A) Reviewer names
- (B) Author age
- (C) Teacher approval
- (D) Formatting, references, symbols and images

Question 23. A research article is different from a review article because it: [1]

- (A) Only critiques
- (B) Is only for conferences
- (C) Gives original research findings
- (D) Has no method section

Question 24. Multimedia should be used in academic writing when: [1]

- (A) It makes the paper long
- (B) It improves understanding
- (C) It replaces all writing
- (D) It is copied from the internet

Question 25. Good feedback on writing should be: [1]

- (A) Only grammar correction
- (B) Only praise
- (C) Given at the end only
- (D) Specific and helpful for revision

Question 26. In digital sources, “authority” means: [1]

- (A) Social media popularity
- (B) Government approval
- (C) Author’s expertise and credentials
- (D) Length of article

Question 27. A reflective journal is used for: [1]

- (A) Writing personal learning, difficulties and insights
- (B) Copying passages
- (C) Writing lecture notes
- (D) Listing references

Question 28. MLA in-text citation usually includes: [1]

- (A) Full name and year
- (B) Author’s last name and page number
- (C) Title and publisher

(D) Footnote number

Question 29. Which is plagiarism?

[1]

(A) Using common knowledge

(B) Proper quotation

(C) Correct citation

(D) Using someone's idea without credit

Question 30. Good writing assessment should:

[1]

(A) Compare students only

(B) Check both writing process and final product

(C) Focus only on grammar

(D) Give one short comment