

Under Graduate Multidisciplinary Course

Semester I Examination 2024–25 (NEP)

ENGLISH

Paper Code: ENGMD11 : Literature and Popular Culture

Time: 2:30 Hours

Max. Marks: 70

Note: Write your Roll No. at the top immediately on the receipt of this question paper.

SECTION – A

Attempt three questions. Long Answer Type (400 words): [3 × 12 = 36 Marks]

Q1. Discuss the important points of John Fiske's essay "Popular Texts".

OR

What are the main concepts of popular culture discussed in Walter Benjamin's essay?

Q2. Ramesh Sippy's Sholay is a mass film. Discuss in detail.

OR

How is cinema responsible in shaping society?

Q3. How is Bhimayana graphic novel different from other biographies of Ambedkar? Explain with reference to the novel's artwork.

OR

How has the Literature and Popular Culture paper shaped your critical thinking ability?

SECTION – B

Attempt four questions. Medium Answer Type (150 words): [4 × 6 = 24 Marks]

Q1. What is the difference between popular and folk culture? Discuss in detail.

OR

How does Arthur Conan Doyle provide an insight into the contemporary crime scene of England through 'The Adventure of Black Peter'?

Q2. What is a graphic novel? Explain the form with reference to any graphic novel prescribed in your syllabus.

Q3. Explain Walter Benjamin's views in relation to art in the age of mechanical reproduction.

Q4. Give a critical appreciation of the film Sholay.

SECTION – C

All questions are compulsory. Short Answer Type (50 words): [5 × 2 = 10 Marks]

- Q1. Give two examples of mass and folk culture.
- Q2. What is meant by canonical and popular texts?
- Q3. Which famous detective figure emerged from Arthur Conan Doyle's stories?
- Q4. Which art form is drawn in the Bhimayana graphic novel?
- Q5. Who are the author and illustrator of the graphic novel Priya's Shakti?