

U.G. Semester-II Examination 2024–25 (NEP)

ENGLISH

Paper Code: ENGMD21 : Disability and Literature

Time: 2:30 Hours

Full Marks: 70

Note: Attempt all Sections as per instructions.

SECTION – A

Attempt all questions. Long Answer Type (400 words): [3 × 12 = 36 Marks]

1. How does Tom Shakespeare's Social Model of Disability challenge the traditional medical model? Critically examine.

OR

How does Tom Shakespeare assess the strengths and limitations of the Social Model of Disability? What alternatives or revisions does he propose? Illustrate your answer with relevant examples.

2. Analyse the character development of Ishaan Awasthi in the film Taare Zameen Par. How do his experiences reflect the emotional world of a dyslexic child?

OR

How does Million Dollar Baby explore the moral and emotional complexities of euthanasia, and what does the film suggest about the boundaries of love, faith, and personal agency?

3. Discuss how and why society considers and makes the 'monster' a monster in Frankenstein.

OR

How do societal norms shape perceptions of inclusion and exclusion in Mary Shelley's Frankenstein?

SECTION – B

Attempt all questions. Medium Answer Type (150 words): [4 × 6 = 24 Marks]

1. How does the monster's appearance influence its treatment by society, and what commentary does this offer on human nature in the novel Frankenstein?

OR

What parallels can be drawn between the novel's exploration of creator-responsibility and modern debates about scientific accountability in Frankenstein?

2. What message do you think Mary Shelley conveys about the nature of monstrosity and humanity in the novel Frankenstein?

OR

How does the novel Frankenstein comment on societal norms and the consequences of deviating from them?

3. Discuss the transformation of Ishaan's self-esteem through Nikumbh's intervention in the film Taare Zameen Par.

OR

Why is Frankie's mantra, 'protect yourself at all times' important outside the ring in the film Million Dollar Baby?

4. Write short notes on any three of the following:

(a) Ableism (b) Stereotype (c) Stigma (d) Norm (e) Divyang (f) Impairment

SECTION – C

All questions are compulsory. Short Answer Type (50 words): [5 × 2 = 10 Marks]

1. Briefly explain the significance of the art contest at the end of the film Taare Zameen Par.
2. What is the basic idea of the social model of disability as discussed by Tom Shakespeare?
3. Why does Victor flee when the Monster first awakens in the novel Frankenstein?
4. What specific disability did Maggie sustain in the film Million Dollar Baby?
5. How does the Monster learn to speak and read in the novel Frankenstein?